Perhaps the busiest of all of Rexford's administrative staff is the Secretary, Mrs. Wright.

Aside from the varied administrative duties she performs, Mrs. Wright has acquired the job of guardian-angel-of-students-who find-themselves-in-unpredictable-emergencies. Her limitless supply of needles-and-thread, band-aids, and safety pins has saved many a day.

PAULINE WRIGHT, SECRETARY

JERRY BOWLS, LIBRARIAN

Rexford's librarian is Mr. Jerry Bowles, who also is Chief Librarian at one of our public libraries.

During the school day, therefore, he is seldom found on the campus. Much of his "free" time, mostly on weekends, is spent in our library.

He numbers newly acquired books, and maintains a card catalog in the library, based on that of the regular Public Library system.

At various times, students have assisted Mr. Bowles, and he has passed on to them the techniques of the librarian.
